

HANDS-ON ACTIVITIES

EXPLORIUM OF LEXINGTON

Saturday, March 3, 11 AM – 5 PM

Sunday, March 4, 12 PM – 4 PM

Join the Explorium of Lexington for a fun family art activity! Participating families will get to work together to explore who they are and what makes them unique by creating a one-of-a-kind family banner that they can display at home. Children are given the opportunity to collaborate with their parents, siblings, grandparents and other family members. This family-friendly art activity provides children with the chance to learn more about their family heritage and celebrate one of the greatest parts of community—family!

CARNEGIE CENTER FOR LITERACY AND LEARNING

Saturday, March 3, 11 AM – 5 PM

Join Lexington's Carnegie Center for Literacy and Learning for fun, interactive craft activities. Celebrate your love of reading and writing by decorating bookmarks and creating and binding your own mini-journal.

THE LIVING ARTS & SCIENCE CENTER

The Living Arts & Science Center will present the two hands-on activities listed below, as well as evolving traditions, a "touchable" display. Evolving traditions teaches children and adults about the changing traditions of Kentucky craft artists through hands-on material, photographs of the work of Kentucky artists and samples of their works-in-progress.

Bookmark Weaving

Saturday, March 3, 11 AM – 5 PM

Raw wool will be available to card, spin and weave. Design and weave your own bookmarks to take home.

Shibori Dyeing Techniques

Sunday, March 4, 12 PM – 4 PM

Shibori is a Japanese term for ancient methods of dyeing fabric by binding, stitching, twisting and compressing. Use rubber bands, pebbles and different binding methods to create unique designs. Living Arts & Science Center instructors will help you dye your own Shibori scarf or handkerchief, which you can take home.
